when	the workshops
Friday July 2	"Mango Tango" Dig into Indian culture by getting to know this exotic and mouthwatering fruit. As they say in India, "Aam ke aam, guthliyon ke daam!"
Tuesday July 6	"Indradhanush ke Rang" India: saffron robes, green rice fields, indigo dyes, rainbow-colored dupattas and more. Take part in this workshop to capture colorful India—you'll be surprised by what you see!
Friday July 9	"Delightful Panchatantra" Wise animals will delight your heart and give you some food for thought. Make an animal puppet to tell your favorite story—your imagination will surely be caught!
Monday July 12	"Jungle mein Mangal" "Fun in the jungle" is for the wild at heart—and for nature lovers who love the wild life! Using recycled materials, help save the forests and make a cool jungle collage.
Wednesday July 14	"Chaat Party" You don't have to be a cook to learn how to make delicious Indian foods. Tangy, spicy, cool, hot, minty, crunchy—all these sensations will tantalize your taste buds.
Friday July 16	"Beautiful Toran" Learn to draw traditional Indian motifs and make an inviting welcome banner. Decorate your door and surprise the friends and family who come into your home!
Monday July 19	"Creative Toys" Bored with your board games? Use a little imagination and create your own. This summer, make new friends, play some games and have fun!
Wednesday July 21	"Songs of India" Take part in this workshop to dance, sing and experience India through sights and sounds. Make a craft, learn a song, join our lively activities and have some musical fun!
Friday July 23	"Story Time" Enjoy listening to stories from India—and make up one of your own too. Learn to draw cartoon characters, then create a cartoon strip to help your story come alive!
Monday July 26	"Raja and Rani" The kings and queens of India have caught the imagination of the world since ancient times. Now you can make their portraits using jewels, fabrics and other decorations from India.
Wednesday July 28	"Red Rose" Nehru's favorite flower is the red rose—and we'll show you how you can make one too. Learn about the rose he kept close to his heart to show his love for the children of the world.
Friday July 30	"Majestic Indian Elephant" Discover how to draw this beautiful animal that has carried the kings and queens of India. Seen in paintings and mythology, this gentle giant is truly amazing, and you'll find out why.
